6 Goals that Will Grow Your Faith in the New Year

Goal 1 of 6...

Scripture:

Revelation 22:12-13

"Look, I am coming soon, my reward with me to repay all people according to their deeds. I am the Alpha and the Omega."

When Jesus Wants to Get Your Attention

You want to know why I love this little bit of scripture so much? It's that very first word. He says, "Look..." Other translations use words like behold, see, or listen. He is getting ready to say something very significant here.

Because I am a visual learner and also a mom of three young boys – I picture Jesus snapping his fingers to get my attention and then gently pulling my gaze up to meet His.

I can sense the urgency. There is so much power in that one word and I know that what Jesus is about to say next will change everything. "...I am coming soon..." Yes, I would say that is pretty important.

Setting Resolutions in Response

During this time of the year, we begin to think about New Year's Resolutions and about all of the things we are going to improve or change simply because the calendar flipped.

Believe me, I am guilty of this too.

"I'm going to stop eating carbs."

"I am going to work out 3 times a week."

"I am going to read the whole Bible this year."

"I'm going to quit yelling at my kids."

"I'm going to have quiet time with the Lord each morning."

...and on and on

Do any of those sound familiar to you? All too often, we put off doing the really important things because we feel like there is still so much time to get that all done.

The Bible tells us in Romans about how Christ feels about guilt and regret. "There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus..." Romans 8:1, meaning your sins are already forgiven- do not carry around what you already laid at the cross.

"And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose..." Romans 8:28 God will use every valley and every mountain top moment to work together for YOUR good, for those who are called according to his purpose..." Romans 8:28

If you have ever read my blog, you know that I am all about keeping faith simple – not complicated. What I am about to share lines right up with that. I am going to tell you about some practical resolutions that don't required you to wait until the New Year – you can start today.
